COUNTERFEITERS BEWARE.

A Michigan Concern Enjoined.

[From the Rochester Morning Herald.]

The following injunction has been obtained by the Hop Bitters Company, of Rochester, N. Y., against Collatinus D. Warner, of Reading, Michigan, prohibiting him from manufacturing or selling "German Hop Bitters."

The President of the United States of America to Collatinus D. Warner, of Reading, Mich., his servants, workmen, salesmen and agents, and each and every one of them:

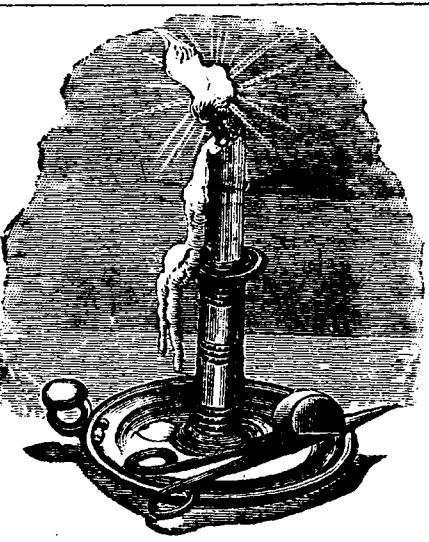

Whereas, it has been represented unto the Justices of our Circuit Court, the Hon. Stanley Matthews, and the Hon. Henry B. Brown, at Detroit, within and for said district, sitting as a court of Chancery, that you, Collatinus D. Warner, are manufacturing and selling a medicine named German Hop Bitters, in fraudulent imitation of the Hop Bitters made and sold by complainant; your said medicine being devised, calculated and intended to mislead the public into purchasing such counterfeit goods as the manufacture of the complainant.

We therefore, in consideration of the premises, do strictly enjoin you, the said Collatinus D. Warner and all and every the persons before named, from using the words "Hop Bitters" on any fluids contained in bottles so as to induce the belief that such fluids are made by complainant; and further, from manufacturing, selling or offering for sale, any bitters or other fluids in the bottles and with labels, and in the general form in which you were manufacturing and selling the bitters, called by you German Hop Bitters, on the filling of the bottle; or in any other bottles, or with any other labels contrived or designed to represent or induce the belief that the bitters or fluids sold by you are the goods of the complainant, until the further order of the court.

Witness, The Honorable MORRISON R. WAITE, Chief Justice of the United States, at Detroit, this 15th day of July, A. D. 1885. [L. S.] Walter S. Harsha, clerk.

Prosecute the Swindlers!!! If when you call for Hop Bitters the drug-gist hands out anything but "Hop Bitters" with a green cluster of Hops on white label, shun that druggist as you would a viper; and if he has taken your money for a bogus stuff, indict him for the fraud and sue him for damages for the swindle, and we will reward you liberally for the conviction.

See U. S. Court injunction against C. D. Warner, Reading, Mich., and all his salesmen, agents, druggists, and other imitators.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

The New York board of health estimates that 30,000 lives have been destroyed by the explosive qualities of petroleum. If every house hold would adopt the White Seal oil for family use, none of these unfortunate accidents would occur.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL has none of the defects usually found in common oils. It cannot be exploded, does not char the wick, will not smoke, emits no offensive odor, and prevents the breaking of chimneys.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL is a rich oil for illuminating purposes. It is as light in color as pure spring water. It gives a strong steady light, and burns much longer than common oils.

If the White Seal Burning Oil is not sold in your vicinity, send your order direct to us for a barrel or a case containing two neat five gallon cans.

HOW ECUADOR TREATED MR. SANTAS.

Julia R. Santas, a naturalized citizen recently released from prison in Ecuador, upon the demand of the United States government, backed up by a man of war, arrived here to-day in company with congressman McCommas of Maryland and called at the Department of state, to express his thanks for its successful efforts in his behalf. To a reporter of the Associated Press Mr. Santas said that the Ecuadorian authorities pretended to have liberated him in consequence of the passage of an act of pardon, by the Ecuadorian congress. This, Mr. Santas declared, was mere pretense. He was liberated three days after the arrival of the Iroquois and Whallen, in consequence of the action of the United States government. The charge against him of having conspired against the government of Ecuador, was, he declared, untrue. He was imprisoned with some other business men, in order that money might be extorted from him. He has documentary proof of the willingness of the authorities to release him at any time, upon payment of $30,000.

When the coin is received at the treasury department it will be counted, a labor which, with the present force, will occupy about two months.

CLEVELAND, O., September 25.—Notwithstanding the concessions made by President Chisholm, of the Cleveland Rolling Mill Company, the strike is not over. A committee of idle workmen, accompanied by the mayor, called on Mr. Chisholm to-day with a paper which they wished him to sign. They demanded that every striker be taken back, that proper notices be made hereafter when reductions in wages are proposed, and that Mr. Chisholm hereafter listen personally to the grievances of the men who think they have been discharged without reason. Mr. Chisholm agreed to all these demands except the first. He said that of the 4,000 strikers, 1,000 would have to seek employment elsewhere, as the mills would not be run to their greatest capacity. The company had been out of the market so long, that a new trade would have to be worked up. In time perhaps, all the men, except the few who had maligned him personally, would be given positions.

The committee were disatisfied with the interview and returned to Newburg. To-night a meeting of the strikers was held in Newburg. The leaders, knowing that they are the men whom the company will not again employ, made bitter speeches about the thousands who were to be "murdered," as they termed it, and the strikers fell in with the leaders and declared that all should remain out, if all were not given the opportunity to take their old places. So the matter stands.

LYNCHBURG, Pa., September 25.—The surviving ex-confederates of Bedford county, this city, held a grand reunion at Liberty, to-day. Three thousand ex-confederates were in line and much enthusiasm prevailed. Congressman John W. Daniels was the speaker of the day. General Jubal A. Early made a patriotic speech, and was loudly cheered. The cannon placed on the hills around the town boomed all day long, and the troops marched with the United States flag, which was greeted everywhere with tremendous applause.

It will be remembered that William Haynes was shot by Bishop Scott, at the door of the latter's chicken coop on March 24, while robbing the hen roost of Scott in company with Oney, Scott's brother, for a practical joke, and that Scott claimed to have fired the pistol intending to frighten them and turn the joke upon them, but by accident shot Haynes, killing him.

NO STRIKE

Will be Ordered on the Union Pacific Road.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

RAWLINS, Wyo., Sept. 26.—It is learned from what is believed to be official source that there will be no strike on the Union Pacific railroad. The reason given is that the Knights of Labor, by organizing a strike would practically endorse the killing of the Chinese at Rock Springs, so they have determined to settle the trouble there by a more suitable means. The Chinese are all at work at the Rock Spring mine and considerable coal is being turned out. A few white miners have accepted passes to other points. Those remaining refuse to work. The railroad company has, it is said, made arrangements to import 200 Mormons from Utah and Idaho to take their places in the mines. Winter quarters are being constructed for the troops here.

AN INHUMAN WRETCH

Carves His Wife and Daughter With a Knife.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Sept. 26.—J. C. Thompson, living at Sodus, near here, quarreled with his wife and daughter recently and the two women left home to come to this place. Late yesterday afternoon Thompson suddenly appeared in the house where they resided and attacked both with a huge knife. He first seized his wife, inflicting a terrible and fatal wound in the throat, but before he could repeat the blow his daughter came to her mother's assistance and endeavored to wrest the knife from her father's grasp, her hand being terribly cut in the attempt. The infuriated man then turned on his daughter and made desperate attempts to cut her throat. The outcries of the women had by this time brought assistance and the would-be murderer fled through an alley and escaped. Physicians say there is some hope of saving the daughter's life.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

HILLTOWN, PENN., September 25.—Thos. V. Thompson married Maude Jones, an abandoned woman, last spring and has been in trouble ever since. Some days ago, while drunk, the woman threatened to murder him if he did not turn away his aged father and mother. The husband locked her in her room for several days, until her debauch wore away. She made threats of revenge when released. To-day she carried them out by killing her husband with an ax, nearly severing the man's head from his body, while he was lying on a lounge in his office. Mrs. Thompson wrote a note explaining that she had consummated the murder and then committed suicide, by cutting her own throat with a razor.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The quo warranto proceedings of James A. Hineckley against Dorman B. Eaton, Lerry D. Thoman and John A. Gregory, civil service commissioners, came up before Judge Wallace, in the United States circuit court, this morning. Hineckley asks leave to begin an action to remove the commissioners and abolish the commission on the ground of unconstitutionality.

United States District Attorney Dorsheimer and Dorman B. Eaton appeared for commissioners, while Morris S. Miller represented Mr. Hineckley. Mr. Miller demanded to know who appeared for defendants. "I appear for all these affidavits," said the district attorney, "and by direction of the president of the United States."

Mr. Miller objects to the commissioners being represented by a government official, as the United States has no real status in the case.

Mr. Dorsheimer then said that the court would decide whether or not the argument should be confined only to the constitutional jurisdiction of the court.

Judge Wallace sustained the motion. Judge Wallace said to Miller, "There is only one case in which I could give you basis for your application and that was an application for the state court of Massachusetts and it was denied; I must also deny your application."

Farmers, frightened by the early frosts, have commenced to cut their tobacco, while it is yet green and the damage it is thought from this source will add greatly to that resulting from frost. Advice from counties in southern Kentucky also report damage to tobacco, and the loss will be much worse than in Indiana, tobacco being the principal production.

SCENES IN THE COURT ROOM.

HIS HONOR AND BIJAH.

"Was it positively necessary to your complete happiness that you should abuse a baker's wife, strike the baker himself, and go at it and demolish four dozen fried cakes and enough angel's food to supply half the angels in Detroit?"

This inquiry was addressed to Ferdinand Baker, a dumpy, hard-looking man of forty who was trying hard to look sorrowful.

"You see," he replied, "I went into the bakery after a pie—a strawberry pie. My mouth had been watering all day, and I anticipated a grand feast. When I got in the woman wanted to put an old pumpkin pie off on me. She said that strawberries would breed the cholera, and that pumpkin pie would fit a man like me much better than strawberry."

"Well?"

"Well, we disputed and got mad. She called me a cow-boy and I called her a lady, and we were at it when the baker came in and took me by the neck. What has become of the barriers of liberty, sir, when a man can be taken by the neck because he wants strawberry pie?"

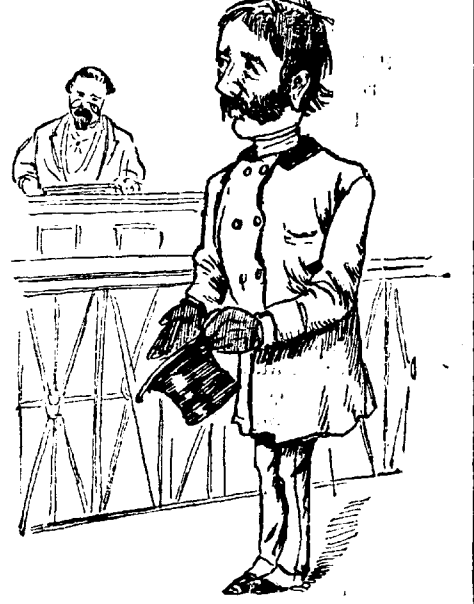

"Prisoner, your story fades in the washing. You entered the bakery and attempted to steal some cakes, as here are several witnesses to prove. What did you expect to gain by lying?"

"I expected to get off with thirty days, sir!"

"Oh! you did! Well, your sentence is for sixty days, and after you come out the baker will make it sultry for you."

SAME OLD DODGE.

"This is the meanest outrage ever recorded on earth!" exclaimed Harper Smith as he stepped to the front.

"Gently, old man. This is no place for boiler explosions."

"I repeat it, sir! My incarceration is the blackest deed in the annals of American tyranny!"

"Sorry to hear it, but perhaps we can fix things up. You were found in an alley, drunk and helpless."

"Alley! Drunk! Helpless! Don't you know the difference between an epileptic fit and a case of too much whisky?"

"Certainly, and that's why I charge you with drunkenness. How do you plead?"

"Look a-here, Judge!" replied the old man as he dropped his voice about fourteen pegs, "don't you make any mistake about this! I've got standing. When I'm home I'm boss of the town. I know two members of the Supreme Court, over twenty of the Legislature, and have shaken hands with the President."

"We seldom make mistakes here, especially on the drunk question. When a man has been drunk his breath admits it, and we make no difference between the lord and the peasant. You were helplessly drunk last night."

"I deny it!"

"Three officers swore to the fact, and the court made the fine $10."

"I'll never pay it—never! never! never! I'll rot in prison for a hundred years first!"

"Very well."

"And the press and pulpit shall ring with this outrage, and—and—!"

There was more to it, but it was lost in the depths of the corridor. In five minutes the man was smoking Bijah's pipe and smiling as if no atom of trouble had ever crossed his path.

IT IS HUMAN TO ERR.

"Judge, de ole man dun went wrong," admitted Abraham Davis.

"You did, eh?"

"Fell right down, sah, though I'm sorry for it. None of us human bein's are perfect, Judge."

"That's so. We are all liable to make mistakes."

"Zactly, sah. Dat's what I war thinkin' of jist awhile ago, an' I reckoned you'd go light on the ole man."

"Doesn't Brother Gardner teach you sobriety as well as industry?"

"I doan' b'long to de Lime Kiln Club, sah. I tried to git in, but dey went back on me kase I had a leetle trouble wid my wife."

"And why did you go on a spree?"

"Can't tell, sah, 'cept dat I couldn't stand prosperity. Doan' reckon I made any trouble, did I?"

"Lot's of trouble. Why, it took two men to get you down, and you kept shouting for an hour. Abraham, I'm afraid you are a tough."

"Me, sah? Why, Ize got de reputashun of bein' de mildest, bestest man in my ward. All de child'en cries fur me."

"Well, there'll be some weeping among 'em now for sure, for you are going up for thirty days. Good-bye, old man; sorry that you'll miss the big end of the strawberry season."

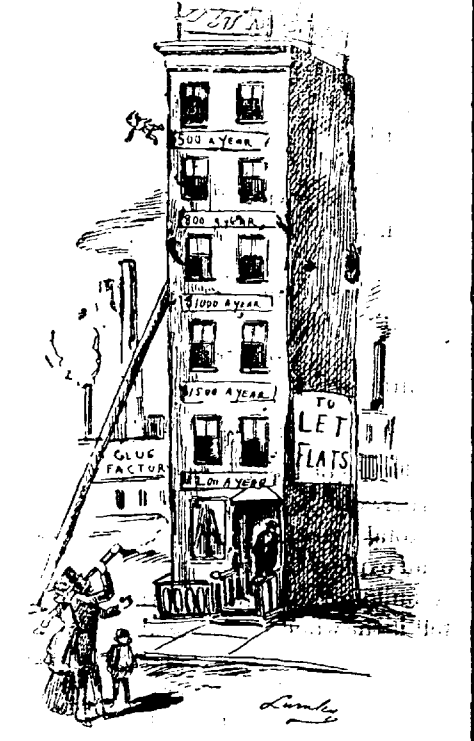

"Yes, sah—good-bye sah. Ize powerful fond of strawberries on toast. Couldn't possibly let me off, eh?"

"Not this time."

"Werry well, I bows to fate. If I miss de strawberries I'll be sartin to hit de water-mellyuns, an' maybe it's all for de bes'. Good-bye, Judge—reckon you knows what's good fur me."

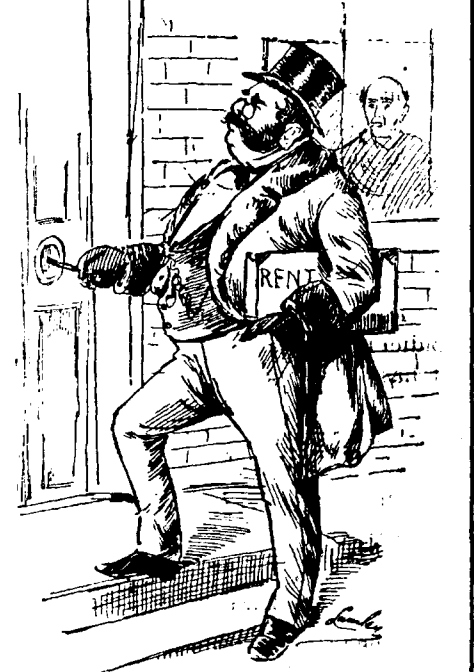

MODERN IMPROVEMENTS.

The style of houses now being erected in New York and other large cities compels the house-hunter to carry a spy glass to examine the upper stories and read the signs hung on the "outer walls." For instance: "Flats to let with all modern conveniences, hot and cold water, gas, stationery tubs, baths, patent reversible ventilators, fire escapes in front and rear, stationery wire clothes-lines on roof and astronomical observatory," to say nothing about the inconveniences of a "Janitor" and an "Elevator" that doesn't run after nine p. m.

TENANT HUNTING.

About thirty days after the house-hunter has hunted to his satisfaction, or dissatisfaction, the landlord starts out with his rent receipt to hunt the tenant. Many tenants consider it cheaper to move than to pay rent, while others prefer to pay in promises, until the landlord becomes disgusted and lends a helping-hand to move them.

A very convenient dodge is for the tenant to fail to answer the door bell and as the landlord does not wish to injure his own property by pulling off the bell-pull, he is compelled to call again and again, and thus time is gained by the tenant. And still the landlord grows rich and corpulent.

What is a Corpuscle

One of the smallest things on earth. It is a little disc, oval in shape and not the three thousandth part of an inch in length. The corpuses give to the blood its bright red color. This color they owe to the iron that is in them. Without iron in your blood would be so pale and thin as to be of no account. Iron enriches it and gives you vitality. The only reliable preparation of iron for a low state of blood is Brown's Iron Bitters, which does wonders for the ailing and debilitated. Buy this valuable tonic of your druggist.

EX-QUEEN ISABELLA, of Spain, is declared by a correspondent to have become simply tub-like in figure. The wart on her nose, says the ruthless chronicler, is more prominent than ever, and altogether the sovereign to whom the Pope once sent the golden rose looks sadly like the Belle Circassienne exhibited at the Neuilly Fair. If she would only hide her deformity—if she would wear high dresses and long sleeves, walk decently and keep her roving eyes (they are much inflamed, I notice) in check a little—one might be blind to her obesity; but she persists in thrusting her fat upon you. She wears low dresses, as though she were a girl of 20, and her eye, when it lights on a favorite of the hour, has an awful resemblance to that of an ogre. She fairly devours the unfortunate; she stares him out of countenance. In vain he may affect to be a free-man.

Paul Laible, of Logansport, a former Fort Wayne boy, writes Capt. Deihl, that he saw Mike Wickliffe leave Logansport on a Pan Handle train. He says a rather plump woman sat beside Mr. Wickliffe, but she was veiled and therefore unknown to him. It was Jennie.

Sister Woodworth's husband remarked to a Marion editor: "Some people think I'm a crank." As he made the remark he winked his right eye until the lower lid came in contact with the corner of his mouth. Sister Woodworth's husband evidently had pleasant recollections of profits derived from the sale of mellons to the hungry crowds attracted by his wife's phenomenal trance manifestations.

"The Portland accommodation has been discontinued, thereby causing the transfer of Conductor Sam Moore. The people along the line from Portland to Fort Wayne very much regret that Sam has been transferred. He is a genial, honest, whole-souled fellow, a first class railroad man, and during the time he had charge of the accommodation made a host of friends, who hope soon to see him back on his old run," says the Portland Sun.

Yesterday was the anniversary of Mrs. Louisa Rose, of 28 Lavina street, and mother of Charles Rose, of the firm of Hartman & Rose, the East Wayne street grocers. About 10 o'clock numerous relatives and friends throughout the county and city began arriving at the Rose mansion laden with baskets of provisions. Mrs. Rose could not understand the situation for sometime the surprise was so complete. At noon a bounteous report was sat down to and the afternoon was spent in social gossip. All left wishing the aged lady a return of many more birth days.

Isaac Howey, long an engineer on the Pittsburg railroad, died at his home near the Organ factory. Mr. Howey was universally liked and a model man. His death was remotely ascribed to an injury sustained in the railroad service. Of late he has been a coal and wood dealer. His funeral will be Sunday under the auspices of secret societies.

"Larry" King, who was arrested at Detroit Wednesday night on suspicion, was photographed yesterday, and before he was taken in front of the camera, the Detroit News says, he made an eloquent little speech to the officers, declaring that he had made his home in Detroit for twenty years and had yet to handle his first crooked dollar there. "It's enough to drive a man to do things he would never think of otherwise," he went on, tragically, "to be dragged in from one state to another, as I have been, and be constantly dogged by the police."

Street Commissioner O'Brien had a force of men cleaning Calhoun street at 5 o'clock this morning. The thoroughfare was neat as a pin when business hours arrived.

A telegram from Muncie says that John Burns, a railroad man whose home is at Fort Wayne, was held up and relieved of $125, on the street there last night. No clue.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Cooler, generally fair weather, variable winds, lower barometer.

Residents of East Main street have complained of the women of the street, who hang out in that vicinity. It is stretching it to arrest these people on the street but Captain Diehl ordered it to test the matter in court. Officer Humbrecht pulled in Lena Slagle and her escort, William Duck. The woman was charged with vagrancy and the man with associating with a bad woman. Mayor Muhler has the matter under consideration and will consult Prosecutor Dawson and his deputy, J. R. Bittinger, before acting. It is doubtful if a conviction would hold good in the higher courts, yet people believe such a thing entirely proper. A person may be ever so bad and depraved but the law recognizes their rights. The officers must be commended in their efforts to stop these street walkers, but the law is not sweeping enough to back them.

LEW CLARK.
He Applies for a Divorce from the Festive Jennie.

This afternoon Lew Clark filed suit for divorce from his wife Jennie Clark, who eloped with Mike Wickliffe. He says the woman abandoned him and otherwise erred. He will strive to secure their considerable property. Mr. Clark talks of quitting the town and wants to lease or sell the Oliver house and other property near it. He is worth some $15,000 and is something of a republican politician.

A Bad Fire in a Drug Store.
The drug store of Henry Reinewald, at the corner of Calhoun and Grand street, is a total wreck. At 12 o'clock last night an explosion occurred in the rear of the building and quicker than it takes to tell it the whole room was ablaze. When the fire department came the flames were in the second story. The building belonged to Mr. Tim Hogan, and was insured for $1,500. The damage is about $500. The stock of drugs is valued at $1,000 and insured for $1,500. The fire looked like the work of an incendiary, but THE SENTINEL prefers to believe it accidental, on the word of Dr. Fiser, who left the store all right. Mr. Reinewald was at Chicago but hastened home to-day. Inmates of the second story were smoked out in a hurry. They say two men ran from the building when the blaze was started by an explosion.

The Depot Transfer Agents.
The announcement that Col. Tom Sullivan's resignation was asked for created a sensation last night. Captain Lewis gave the news away and he has been asked to step aside in a few days. There is a change in the program to-day. Tom Mannix can get the night agency but he would rather go into the territories. A soldier may succeed Tom Sullivan. Mr. Wolf has been promised another place. "You can say," said Mr. Wolf, "that I will be transfer agent or something better." A gentleman at his side remarked, "he deserves anything he gets. He gave up his money for his friends."

Death List.
These deaths occurred in the city this week: Theresa Walther, 60 years, paralysis; Lola H. Luegring, 4 months, brain fever; John Dodge, 81 years, congestion of lungs; H. L. Peters, 5 days, self-suffocation; child of John Davidson, 1 day, self-suffocation.

"It Knocks the Spots," and everything in the nature of eruption, blotches, pimples, ulcers, scrofulous humors, and incipient consumption, which is nothing more nor less than scrofula of the lungs, completely out of the system. It stimulates and invigorates the liver, tones up the stomach, regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, and builds up the weak places of the body. It is a purely vegetable compound, and will do more than is claimed for it. We refer to Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery."

Wagner Swayne, trustee for the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago and the Michigan City and Indianapolis railways, and Edwin Parsons, a bondholder, have brought suit in the federal court, at Indianapolis, against the Wabash railroad and others for the appointment of a receiver for the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago and Michigan City and Indianapolis and for the sale of the same, unless the amount owing the plaintiffs be paid. In 1881 the Wabash leased the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago and the Michigan City and Indianapolis roads on condition of paying $675,000 for the former and $320,000 for the latter, the roads being mortgaged to Wagner Swayne and Hiram Hendricks, in trust for the bondholders. Hendricks resigned his trust and no successor has been elected. Bonds were issued to the stockholders of the two roads. The interest has been defaulted, and in response to the request of the bondholders Swayne has declared the entire amount due and unpaid.

That Terrible Drain
which scrofula has upon the system must be arrested, and the blood must be purified, or serious consequences will ensue. For purifying and vitalizing effects, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found superior to any other preparation. It expels every trace of impurity from the blood, and bestows new life and vigor upon every function of the body, enabling it to entirely overcome disease.

A Public Acknowledgement.
I desire to express my thanks to Dr. W. H. Myers, who so successfully operated upon me at the St. Joe hospital some months ago. I am now happy to say the wound has entirely healed and my health good. I deem this public announcement necessary.
